

ANGOLA

POSTAL HISTORY

MILITARY MAIL.

POSTAL SERVICE. The military forces in Angola increased during the 60s and early 70s as the freedom movements took hold. Military bases had their own postal markers with SERVICO POSTAL MILITAR, POSTAL MILITAR or SERV. POSTAL MILITAR. All bases were indicated by a number, eg. Luanda = 6. Army bases were indicated by the letters E.P.M. and the air bases by P.M.C. Thus P.M.C. 136 indicated the Carmona Air Base and P.M.C 176 indicated Luanda Air Base No. 9.

AIRMAIL LETTERS. Special Airmail Letter Sheets were available to the forces either printed locally in Angola or printed in Portugal and overprinted in Angola. These were produced between 1964 and 1974 and were carried free by T.A.P to Portugal. The common marking was CORREIO AEREO ISENTO DE PORTE E DE SOBRETAXA AEREA. These air letters are not very common.
